

MyCanmore user generated contributions

You can now share your own information and images directly with Canmore, the online database of Scotland's national collection of buildings, archaeology and industry. A window to Scotland's places, Canmore features photographs, maps, drawings and expert information on more than 300,000 places of interest, from abandoned settlements to the local high street, and ancient monuments to historic houses.

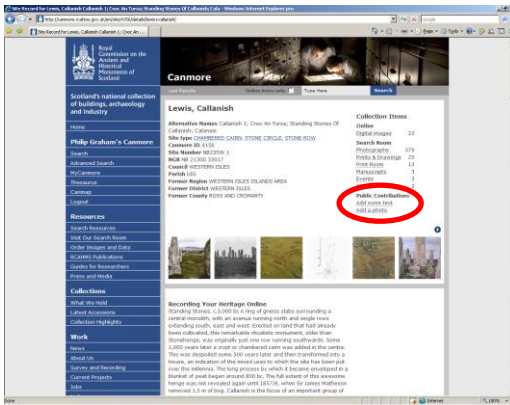

How to register for MyCanmore

- Go to <http://canmore.rcahms.gov.uk>, click on the Register link and enter your details.
- You will receive a confirmation email that you will need to validate to complete registration.

How to upload information and images

- Search for a building or site of interest in Canmore and click on the relevant entry.
- Click on the 'Add some text' or 'Add a photo' link and follow the instructions.

Customising MyCanmore

Once you've logged in, by clicking on the MyCanmore link you can change your account settings, view your text contributions, view and edit your image contributions and customise Canmore to search and display only your preselected fields.

